

GRANT APPLICATION

The Pop Up Book Stall (PUBS) provides a limited number of grants to assist community organisations and activities that support health and wellbeing within the Glamorgan Spring Bay area.

If you meet the following guidelines you are able to apply for a grant from PUBS.

The activity or service which forms the basis of your application must:

- Provide services and facilities that strengthen community health and wellbeing
- Be based within the Glamorgan Spring Bay Municipality
- Be initiated within the community and actively involve local people.
- Address relevant community needs or issues
- Be of benefit to the wider community rather than the group/organisation making the application
- Provide value for money based on how many people will benefit from the service / activity
- Not duplicate other locally available services / activities
- Comply with recognised Australian Standards and must observe any relevant federal, state or local government regulations or guidelines

In addition:

- Any previous monies received from PUBS must have been fully acquitted
- Any grants made by PUBS must only to be used for the service / activity specified in your application
- Unused grant funds must be reimbursed to PUBS
- The amount of any grant is at the discretion of the PUBS Committee
- We request that all information pertaining to your application must accompany the grant form itself, and the application must be "self-contained". We will not consider information provided in a cover email.
- You will be required to notify PUBS of completion of project, advise how grant has been acknowledged and to acquit any donation.
- Applications should be submitted by the 1st of the month.

The Evaluation Form indicating PUBS' criteria for reviewing grant applications is included for information only.

If you have any questions regarding PUBS donations you can contact:

- Mary-Anne Pyke 0409 571 575
- Alison Wheaton 0404 227 772

Applications may be lodged by email at popupbookstall@hotmail.com or by handing your form to one of the above committee members.

All applicants will be notified by email of the result of their application.

We look forward to receiving your application.
